D4 ELECTION CENTRAL FESTIVITIES

The San Diego City Clerk's Office will be staffing an Election Central to report voting results in the District 4 City Council race on Tuesday, March 26 from 7:30 to 11 p.m. at the George L. Stevens

Special Election

Senior Center, 570 S. 65th

Street. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the first results bulletin announcing the tally of mail ballots will be issued shortly after the polls close at 8 p.m. Subsequent bulletins are scheduled to be issued at 30-minute intervals starting at 9 p.m. with the final election posting from the Registrar of Voters occurring no later than midnight. If you are unable to attend Election Central, you can access up-to-date results at the Registrar of Voters website online at: sdvote.com.

CITY COUNCIL NOTES:

On Monday, March 25 the San Diego City Council approved allocating approximately $11.4 million in federal FY2014 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds to citywide projects and programs. In addition, the council agreed that approximately $1.3 million of those funds will be allocated to cover the costs of homeless programs managed by the San Diego Housing Commission. The FY2014 CDBG application period ran Oct. 12 to Nov. 14, 2012. City staff will release a draft Annual Action Plan for funding the first week of April. City Council is scheduled to give final approval of the plan in late April or early May.

The San Diego City Council will be on legislative recess the week of April 1 - 5. The next regularly scheduled council meetings are April 8 and 9.

SKYLINE DRIVE IMPROVEMENTS

A ribbon-cutting ceremony was held on Thursday, March 21 to mark the completion of the Skyline Drive Corridor Improvements Project. San Diego Mayor Bob Filner joined former City Council President Tony Young as well as Council District 4 staff, Encanto Neighborhood Community Planning Group, Skyline-Paradise Hills Community Planning Group and City of San Diego Public Works Department officials to celebrate the $1.4 million project that installed traffic calming features, pedestrian and bike enhancements, additional traffic signals, neighborhood monument signs and other street improvements along Skyline Drive from 58th Street to Cardiff Street.

NON-VIOLENCE PEACE RALLY

San Diego will kick-off the nationwide campaign of "Non-Violence: No Higher Calling" with a public peace rally event at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 25 at the Spreckels Organ Pavilion in Balboa Park. The free public program includes: Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, a world-renowned humanitarian leader and an ambassador of peace; San Diego Mayor Bob Filner; San Diego Unified Superintendent Cindy Marten; renowned peace activist Azim Khamisa; and the Chancellor of UCSD, Pradeep Khosla. The event will be a celebration of non-violence, with musical performances and a meditation for peace. Information on the event can be found at: http://nonvio.org/th_event/san-diego/NONVIO.ORG.

OLD GLOBE INTERNSHIPS

The Old Globe Theatre seeks applicants for paid internships in its marketing department.

These internships are designed as an introduction to marketing for theatre and made possible through a grant from the James Irvine foundation. The purpose of the grant is to provide internship opportunities to individuals from underserved communities who are recent high school graduates or just entering the workforce. Interns will have the opportunity to learn specific skills for the theatre industry as well as good work habits by working directly with experienced professionals. Applicants must have an interest in learning about theatre, but no prior experience is required. Internships will be 8-10 weeks. To apply, please send resume and/or letter of interest to: Human Resources, The Old Globe, PO Box 122171, San Diego, CA 92112; email to: HR@TheOldGlobe.org; or fax to the theatre at: (619) 235-2185.
